Contents

1. Collect Relevant Business Information

   1.1 Review Staff and Customer Feedback, as Well as Business Performance Data 12

   1.2 Identify, Define and Analyse Business Issues 16

   1.3 Identify Information Required to Reach a Decision on Issues 19

   1.4 Source and Collect Relevant and Reliable Information 21

   1.5 Confirm Information is Reliable and Valid, and Reject where Contradictory or Ambiguous 23

   1.6 Consult Relevant Stakeholders, and Collect and Review Relevant Knowledge. 25

2. Analyse Information and Knowledge

   2.1 Create Clear, Relevant and Consistent Objectives for Analysis Based on Organisational Requirements 28

   2.2 Identify and Interpret Patterns and Emerging Trends in Relation to Organisational Requirements 30

   2.3 Use and Interpret Statistical Analyses where Required 32

   2.4 Use Sensitivity Analysis on Relevant Options 35

   2.5 Document Analysis of Information Approach and the Knowledge and Conclusions Drawn 37

   2.6 Adjust Information and Knowledge Management Decision Support Systems Where Required. 38

3. Decide How to Rectify Business Issues

3.1 Confirm Sufficient Valid and Reliable Information is Available to Support Decisions 40

3.2 Use Risk Management Plans to Determine Acceptable Courses of Action 43

3.3 Use Relevant Quantitative Methods to Assist Decision Making 51

3.4 Consult Specialists and Other Relevant Stakeholders 53

3.5 Make Decisions and Confirm they are Consistent with Organisational Objectives, Values and Standards 57

4. Distribute Information to the Organisation

4.1 Confirm Information Requirements are Documented and Compliant with Organisational Requirements 60

4.2 Document Information and Update Databases 63

4.3 Design and Test Systems to Meet Information Requirements of Relevant Stakeholders. 65

4.4 Confirm Information and Knowledge Systems are Current, Accurate, Relevant and Sufficient For Stakeholders. 68

4.5 Develop communication plan. 70

4.6 Distribute Information to Relevant Stakeholders According to Organisational Policies and Procedures. 73

4.7 Monitor and Update Communication Distribution Plans 75

4.8 Maintain Relevant Knowledge and Support Information Security. 77

Unit Review 81