

Contents

1. Determine Procurement Requirements and Processes
1.1 Identify project objectives, needs and budget	10
1.2 Identify procurement requirements	14
1.3 Establish agreed procurement management plan	15
1.4 Identify potential suppliers	18
1.5 Obtain information from potential suppliers capable of fulfilling procurement requirements	19
1.6 Determine selection processes and selection criteria, and communicate to suppliers	20
1.7 Obtain approvals from relevant stakeholders for procurement processes to be used	22
2. Conduct Procurement Activities
2.1 Communicate agreed proposals and specifications to potential suppliers and confirm understanding of project objectives	26
2.2 Seek supplier responses and evaluate according to proposal requirements	29
2.3 Select preferred supplier according to legal requirements and agreed selection criteria	32
2.4 Negotiate with preferred supplier and agree on terms and conditions of supply	34
3. Monitor Procurement
3.1 Implement procurement management plan and arrange regular meetings with supplier to track progress	44
3.2 Maintain procurements records and documentation according to organisational policies and procedures	47
3.3 Monitor completion of task against agreed terms and conditions	50
3.4 Review progress and manage agreed variations	53
3.5 Identify and report procurement management challenges and implement agreed remedial actions	56
4. Manage Procurement Finalisation Procedures
4.1 Conduct finalisation activities and confirm deliverables meet contracted requirements	60
4.2 Review project outcomes using procurement records and information and determine effectiveness of procurement processes and procedures	63
4.3 Seek and respond to feedback from relevant stakeholders on management of project procurement	65
4.4 Document lessons learned and recommended improvements for future projects	67
Unit Review	69